STIPULATION OF FACTS

The parties hereby stipulate that, if this case had proceeded to trial, the Government would have proven the following beyond a reasonable doubt:

1. On June 29, 2016, Defendant Wayne A. Scott was an inmate at the Federal Correctional Institution at Greenville, Illinois, (hereinafter "FCI-Greenville"), in Bond County, within the Southern District of Illinois.

2. On the above date, a correctional officer was conducting a visual search of the defendant when he found a homemade shank hidden inside the altered crotch of the defendant's prison pants. The object was a plastic toothbrush, approximately six (6) inches long, sharpened to a point at one end with a shoestring handle at the other end.

3. The defendant admitted possession of the weapon in a videotaped interview, stating that he had it for protection. The defendant also admitted hiding the "shank" inside a hole in his prison issued khaki pants.

4. A six (6) inch long sharpened toothbrush is a prohibited object for a federal inmate to possess.

5. This stipulation of facts is intended only to provide the Court with a sufficient foundation to accept the defendant's guilty plea and is not necessarily an exhaustive account of the defendant's criminal activity.
